INSIDE THIS GUIDE

- Brand personality
- Voice and language
- Logo and colour
- Typography
- Tone by channel
- Imagery and social

Five pillars of our personality

Professional

Clear, concise and informed.
We avoid unnecessary jargon.

Approachable

Friendly and welcoming,
while retaining authority.

Reliable

Dependable, consistent and solution focused.

Forward-thinking

Innovative and current on industry advancements.

Community minded

Supportive of local and regional initiatives.

Four principles for our voice

Clarity over cleverness

Plain English first. Avoid jargon and undefined acronyms so anyone can follow.

Confidence without arrogance

Lead with expertise and stay humble. Let the work speak for itself.

Warmth with professionalism

Friendly and human, never casual or flippant.

Consistency across channels

The same voice in proposals, emails, social posts and web copy.

The non-negotiables

Apply these to every piece of written content, without exception.

- ✓ UK English spelling: organise, colour, programme, specialise.
- ✓ Never use em dashes. Use commas, semicolons or full stops.
- ✓ Active voice always. Our team delivered, not it was delivered.
- ✓ Preferred terms: bespoke, engaging and expertise.
- ✓ Spell out acronyms on first use, then abbreviate, for example Mechanical and Electrical (M&E).
- ✓ Numbers: spell out one to nine; use figures for 10 and above.
- ✓ Plain English. Explain technical terms where needed.
- ✓ Avoid hype. No world-class, best ever or revolutionary.

— THE LOGO

Using the logo correctly

ON LIGHT BACKGROUNDS

Place the full-colour logo directly onto white or pale surfaces.

ON DARK BACKGROUNDS

On navy or photography, sit the colour logo on a white chip to protect the coloured mark.

Always keep clear space around the logo, never stretch, recolour or rotate it, and never place it on a low-contrast or busy background.

Our colour palette

All type is black. Colour is reserved for user interface, charts and accents, never for text.

CORE COLOURS (never used for text)

Deep Blue

#124B8A

Primary. Buttons, highlights, first chart series.

Sky Blue

#2196D4

Secondary. Callouts and second chart series.

Indigo

#2F3382

Secondary. Deep accents, third chart series.

Vital Orange

#EB5324

Accent only. Small highlights and dividers, sparingly.

Sun Yellow has been retired and must not be used.

TEXT & NEUTRALS

Black

#000000

All text.

— TONE

Matching tone to the channel

Client proposals & tenders

Confident, precise and evidence-led.

Marketing collateral

Warm, benefits-led and plain English.

Social media

Conversational but never flippant; community minded.

Internal communications

Clear, supportive and action-oriented.

Crisis & sensitive

Calm, factual and empathetic.

Do's and don'ts

Do

- ✓ Lead with client benefit, not internal process.
- ✓ Stay humble and let expertise speak for itself.
- ✓ Be specific with numbers, projects and outcomes.
- ✓ Match the tone to the channel.

Don't

- ✗ Sound corporate-cold or overly casual.
- ✗ Overpromise or use hype.
- ✗ Use political, religious or contentious framing.
- ✗ Mix tones within a single piece.

Imagery and consent

Real work, real people

Use genuine images of our work and team. No stock that misrepresents us, and nothing blurred or out of context.

Safety on show

Subjects must wear the correct personal protective equipment. Never depict unsafe practices or hazards.

Written consent required

Secure written consent for any identifiable individual, and parental consent for anyone under 18.

Manage and refresh

Store consent forms centrally, refresh when re-using imagery, and withdraw on request without delay.

Approval first

All posts require Marketing approval before publishing. Sensitive topics need Director sign-off.

Respond within one business day

Reply to comments and direct messages promptly, using approved hashtags only.

Escalate, never react

Escalate complaints, safety or compliance issues. Never reply when angry, defensive or unsure.

Keep accounts secure

Keep two-factor authentication enabled on all accounts and never share passwords.

One brand, every channel

Consistency is what builds trust. Apply these guidelines to everything you write and design, and when in doubt, ask the Marketing team.

REMEMBER

- Plain English, UK spelling
- Never use em dashes
- Black text, colour for accents
- Heavitas and Nexa only
- Consent before imagery
- Marketing approval on social
